

LAUNCHED

a special brew with a Hertfordshire twist

Willian Shakesbeer

You're bard! was the cry from the bar at The Fox at Willian on Thursday 13th June when Brancaster Brewery's new 'Hertfordshire' limited edition special brew was launched. The recipe was devised and brewed by John Anderson, general manager at The Fox, Willian.

It is a bitter ale with a spicy hop bitterness on the finish, which comes from the north down, pioneer, and Willianette hops in the recipe. The chocolate and caramel malts, very moreish, provide the red colour.

Liz Brenham from Hitchin who entered a competition, winning a bottle of champagne, to name the special brew, Willian Shakesbeer, performed the beer pump unveiling. Regulars joined in with the celebrations enjoying a glass or two 'on the house' at the bar.

John Anderson who is a real ale enthusiast said 'turning my passion for consumption into my passion for production with this new brew has been a very 'special' experience. With the help of my 'cast' (my regulars) at the bar, I have been able to produce a very special 'Hertfordshire/Norfolk' brew which will be a real addition to our sister company range at Brancaster Brewery.' www.brancasterbrewery.co.uk
